FIRST-DEGREE BURNS

Vol. 1

TRANSMISSIONS FROM THE PLAYA
Dear Burning Man,

Humbled gratitude for all your blessings.

Temple, I love you.

All my brothers or sisters of Black Rock City, You are magic.

Thank you for your sharing, creativity, love, inspiration, compassion, everything always.

Peace, love, eternal good vibes.

Namaste, Possum.
The only place I can wake up having been unreasonable and expressly angry drunk and remember a wonderful evening of magic.

IS THAT YOU, LINDA?

BRC
- There is no rebar in the Fk Truck
- Fire burning
- So does the sun
- The confluence of brilliance, creativity, and emptiness. Such for the sake of itself is a wonderful thing.

- Fire tastes hot
- It will get messy, there's no way around it
- Embrace the dust
- Be random, it's more fun (please suck)
- Fk judging
- Sometimes, the best music in the world is the sound of a marching band, progressive house, Michael Jackson, a drum circle, and a dust storm Happening simultaneously.
- If you see more than 5% you're missing a lot because you're moving too fast.
- Running a theme camp is a whole lot of work, and is immensely satisfying, especially when it's The Last Pugmen.

Just because it's on the playa doesn't mean it's SAFE! But... SAFETY THIRD!

- Never wear sequin panties for a playa walk

Please explain
First day on the playa and starting to settle in. Enjoying a snow cone on a couch in the shade. Feeling a little overwhelmed but excited and full of life. Wondering what the week will reveal to me. Creation and destruction I presume, but only time will tell what will come in this crazy world of debauchery. Play nice my friends.

"Play Nice"

Old nomenclature from this.

Cooling off with a snow cone in the shadow on a couch. I am having a wonderful experience. I'm glad to be home.

Love the vibe, the smiles, and the snow cones.

Fire camp 5:00
(Station 5)
I dreamt myself on a rowboat, navigating a placid pond. The waters were dim, not with the natural detritus of woodland lakes, but with some thick slime of industry such as oil or grease.

Looking over the side, I was at once repulsed by the grime and filled with the desire to dive overside. Upon looking into the depths, however, I saw that suspended in the water were all manner of bladed instruments - cutlery and tools. I distinctly remember a hack saw and steak knives. Then I woke up.
Penguins are awesome.
Let it in, accept it
as you, what ever you don't love you have the power to change.
Mist not want not!
This week at the playa will be used to heal, to cleanse my soul, to find the strength I need to not only make a very difficult decision (that would impact a family significantly) - but to also carry through with that decision.

I will be silent no more.
I will not keep your secrets or decry.
I will not be complicit in your betrayal.

Only through open communication
Can any of us understand how
I could not have chosen to camp next to a better group of people. Keeping us cool with the snowcones and classy with the dark chocolate and wine. And live music! Thank you and much love.

I would like to experience every thing it can. In the twice that I have had back, or only whether I have or any thing you have made a difference. Do live it up. (Disco Blush)

Day 4 on the Playa. A little cranky & tired but sno-cone hit the spot. Hope to catch up with Drake & Baby G and even Oregon kids.
