I am always amazed at how

He is freaking out saying

"I'm having these nightmares,
first I turn into a teepee, then
I turn into a wigwam, then back to a teepee again. It's too intense!!!"

Psychiatrist says.

"Calm down man. You just too tense."

five years later and sometimes I wonder why I come here. Specially when despite my best efforts my cooler is giving me the middle finger & the zipper on my tent has decided jamming itself in mid closing.

But then I walk out into the road & hear the cheers as the Sun goes down... And people passing by don't give a second glance or thought to the fact that I'm wearing some seriously frilly panties & a giraffe on my head.

I look @ the cuts & bruises I've gained. At the home I've built for the week. There's Nowhere like this anywhere.

THE WORLD AWAITS IN THE DEEP PLAYA.<sup>1</sup>

I WENT TO DEEP PLAYA AND ALL I GOT WAS THIS STUPID WORLD...

I sat in a porta potty, and a sign on the inside of the door said, "you're doing it wrong." NO, I said, this is the place, and everything is just right?

Burning man is not for everyone but for those who can handle it, it is so worth it.

"Once you discover who you are, share it with the world... unless you discover you are an asshole, then keep it to yourself."

IF YOU ARE READING THIS NOW, IT IS ALREADY TOO LATE FOR ME!
For me, the magic of Burning Man is that I engage in interesting conversations with people I ordinarily wouldn't talk with.

There is great beauty in this dry, dusty, far from deserted desert. As it should be.

This is a place of intense empowerment,
extreme ridiculousity, and overwhelming aesthetic experience. Thanks for giving me a place I can live in my ferret mind, bouncy climbby me that doesn't get enough time out.
